VILLAGE HALLOWEEN PARADE

October 31

Along 6th Avenue
from Spring to 16th Streets

The Dog Parade is a tough act to follow, but each year the Village Halloween Parade does so with aplomb to spare. This year's theme is "Wild Thing," perfectly appropriate for what is one of the City's most widely wonderful events.

MACY'S THANKSGIVING DAY PARADE

November 28

From 77th Street & Central Park
West to Macy's Herald Square

Balloons, floats, marching bands, the Rockettes, Broadway musical casts, pop performers: This parade packs a lot of entertainment into three hours. This year's performers have not been announced yet, but the iconic Snoopy balloon will definitely make an appearance.

ROCKEFELLER CENTER TREE LIGHTING

December 4

Rockefeller Center
30 Rockefeller Plaza

While the towering spruce in Rockefeller Center will be up and decorated by late November, it is not until December 4 that its lights will be turned on, preceded by a celebration of musical performances. The tree will remain lit every evening until after New Year's.

NEW YEAR'S EVE IN TIMES SQUARE

December 31

One Times Square
Along 7th Avenue

The acts scheduled to perform in this year have not yet been named, but everyone knows only the starriest stars will usher in the descent of the crystal-laden ball, the confetti pouring from the rooftops, and the fireworks that will welcome 2020.
